ATLANTA, GA. - May 18, 2015 - In the sometimes crowded world of web design companies, it's often difficult for a company to make a name for themselves. The later is certainly the case with Atlanta based rising web design firm Ultimate Marketing Group, who have quickly built a remarkable reputation as one of the region's "go to" web design resources. Recently, the company was awarded a Silver Award from Horizon Interactive Awards in the Portfolio category of the 2014 contest. The company is very pleased with the results.
